In The Class

Now I lay me down to study,
I pray the lord I won't go nutty.
If I should fail to learn this junk,
I pray the lord I will not flunk.
But if I do, don't pity me at all,
just lay my bones down in the study hall.
Tell my teacher I did my best,
then pile my books upon my chest.
Now I lay me down to rest,
and pray I'll pass tomorrows test.
If I should die before I wake,
That's one less test I'll have to take!

DO-ERS PROFILE

CARMEN P. RINALDI

PROFESSION: Headmaster, Brookline High School

HOBBY: Playing in his greenhouse with his plants and, if time allows, watching "SOAP."

IDOL: Luciano Pavarotti. In his next life he would like to be an opera singer with the ability to sing all parts of an opera by himself.

WEAKNESS: Anything edible, "as long as it's not moving."

MOST AMUSING EXPERIENCE: Finding a VW "bug" on the B.H.S. roof above the fourth floor; second only to finding a trashcan on top of the flagpole. Mr. Rinaldi commented that our student body is very original and highly creative.

MOST INSPIRING EXPERIENCE: Being hired and payed as a substitute teacher when still a high school junior. The experience was especially memorable because at the time Mr. Rinaldi had a crush on the ailing teacher. "She was elegant, chick and very french."

MOST FRUSTRATING EXPERIENCE: Causing one of the largest traffic jams in Kenmore Square by stopping his car in the middle of the intersection. Ever since then, Mr. Rinaldi has become cowardly and immobile when behind the wheel of any car.

HIS GOALS FOR THE HIGH SCHOOL: 1. To put a large swimming pool in the middle of the quadrangle, covered with a glass dome so that in the winter it could be a greenhouse. 2. To have moving floors in the corridors which would spiral up to the fourth floor, eliminating the need for stairways. 3. To have a removable glass roof over the quadrangle, with a shower system built in, to be used at all graduations. 4. To have twenty-five glass elevators, like those at the Hyatt in the quadrangle thus reducing traffic in the library.

GOALS FOR HIMSELF: 1. To lose fifty pounds so that people will say to him "you poor sick man." 2. To grow fourteen inches without using elevator shoes or a pogo stick.

INTERVIEWER'S FAVORITE ANECDOTE: When still a foreign language teacher at this high school, Mr. Rinaldi taught a girl not to laugh in his class. For her first offense he told her to sit in front of him, in a wastebasket. After her second offense he pushed her into it with a little too much enthusiasm, and she become stuck. Although he may have taught the girl a lesson, Mr. Rinaldi still had to apologize to her parents for embarrassing her in front of the class.

FAVORITE NON-ALCOHOLIC BEVERAGE: A rootbeer float. "I freak out over rootbeer floats!"

Wow, what a year! (What 4 yea
Finally, I got everything accom that needed to get done: tak

The other day some of my friends and I were discussing ou seems that everyone is going in a different directions. This year is so much different than previous ones, especially freshman year. It was funny how we felt real cool to finally get to high school. When we were in 9th grade we were (as the saying goes) "Little Fish in a big pond." No more do we search frantically down those crowded halls for a familiar face, have our noses glued to the Student HandBook's map, or walk around 5 time before we know where we're going. (I wonder if college will be like that next year).

Now that High School is nearly over, I feel both elation and confusion. My dream of leaving has nearly come true, yet when I look back at all of the good times it was great despite the all nighters, the quizzes and AWOLs. I learned a lot about myself not only from my teachers but also from B.H.S. I am going to miss you

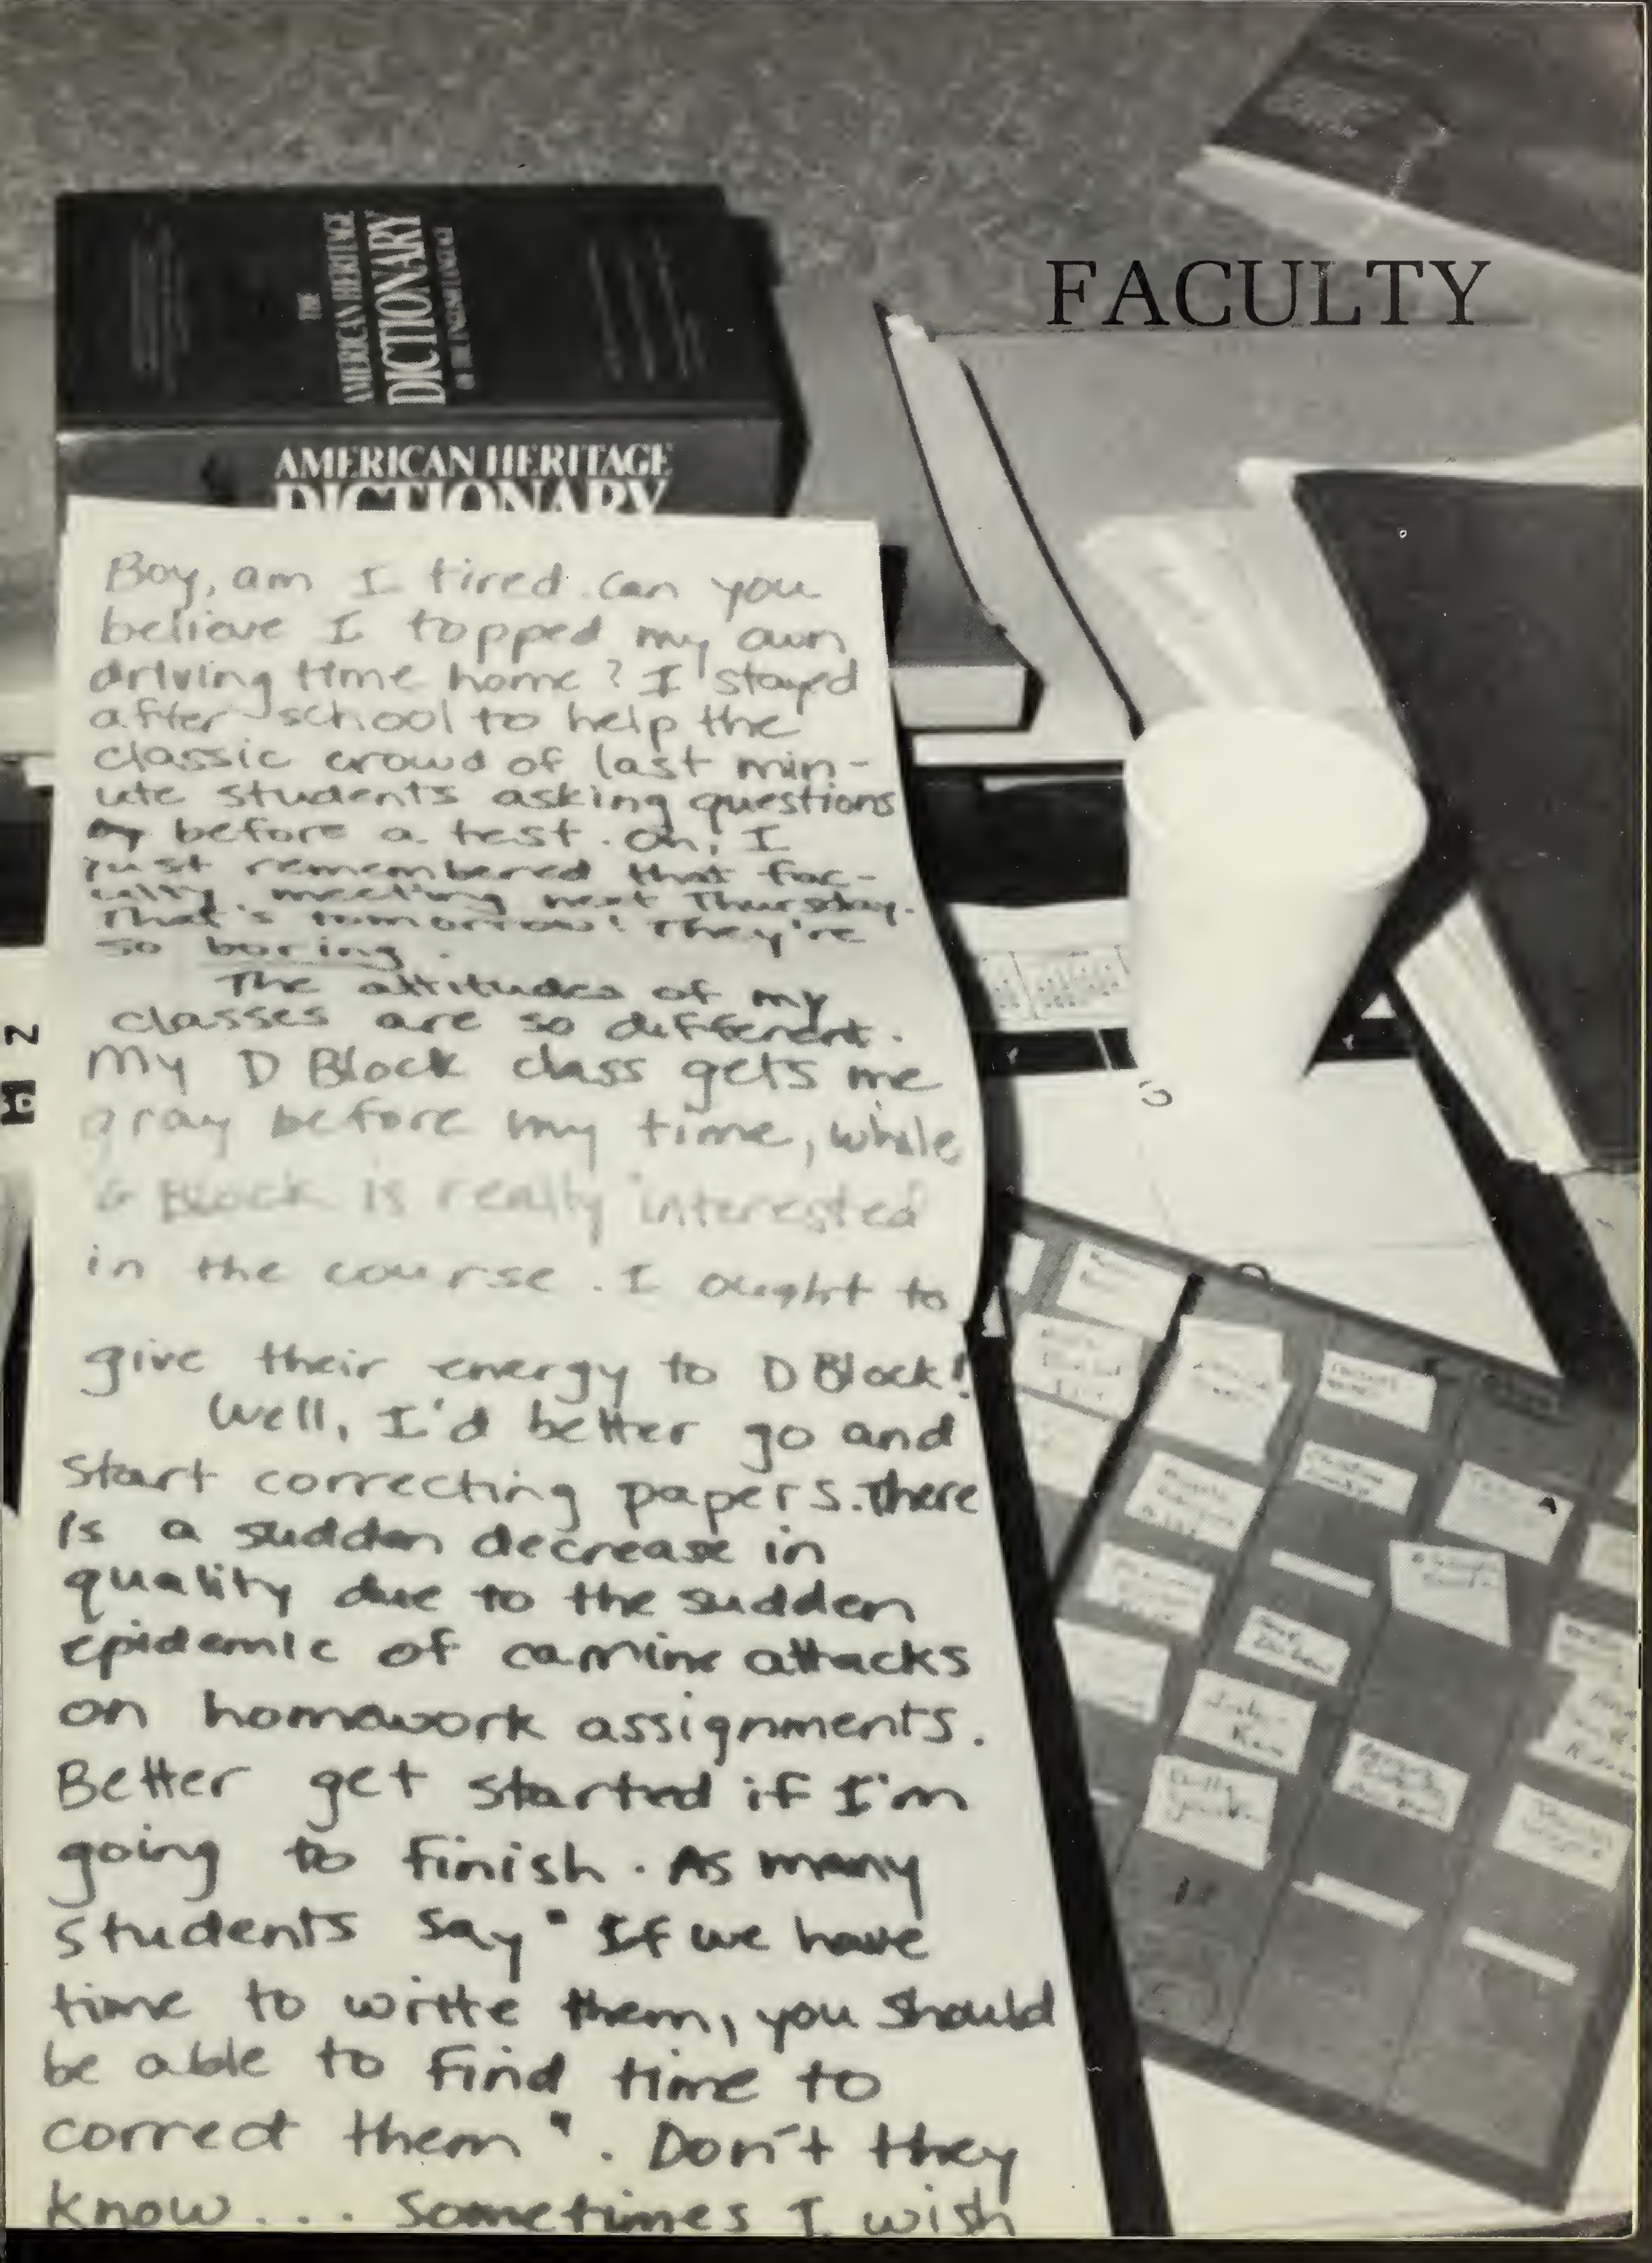
FACULTY



Boy, am I tired. Can you believe I topped my own driving time home? I stayed after school to help the classic crowd of last minute students asking questions before a test. Oh! I just remembered that faculty meeting next Thursday. That's tomorrow! They're so boring.

The attitudes of my classes are so different. My D Block class gets me gray before my time, while G Block is really interested in the course. I ought to give their energy to D Block!

Well, I'd better go and start correcting papers. There is a sudden decrease in quality due to the sudden epidemic of canine attacks on homework assignments. Better get started if I'm going to finish. As many students say "If we have time to write them, you should be able to find time to correct them". Don't they know... Sometimes I wish

Co-Captains Erin and Margot.

The girls swim team had a superb season; it triumped with an 11-1 record. Different strategies were incorporated in this year's practices: (1) in weight training, (2) in land exercises, and (3) in tapering. The team only tapered at the end of the season for the championships, where most everyone did their best times, or dove with high scores. The team and the coaches, Joanne Danigella and James Locke, are proud of their accomplishments.

BOYS VARSITY SOCCER

As the season progressed the team displayed the makings of a more than respectable League representative being led by senior captain Bruce Milton and fellow seniors Marshall Bruce, Jim Kohn, Dan Frankenthal, Cliff Long, and Junior Howard Green as regular participants. In addition strong efforts were displayed by juniors, Matt Yorks, Jorg Bassiacos, Zeng Khan, Ken Pucker and sophomore Joe Ross.

The BHS soccer team had spirit and managed to complete the season with a record of 13 wins, 4 losses and 1 tie thereby qualifying for the prestigious Eastern Mass. Tournament.

BOY'S GOLF

In spite of the fact that this year's golf team was very young, no seniors, half sophomores and half juniors, we should have done better. We had our worst season in the last nine years, winning five, losing three. This brings the golf team's record for the last nine years to 89 wins and 9 losses. The young team had good tournament experience, however, and should do very well next year.

The transformation from struggling fledgling to imposing contender usually takes several years and thus cross-country's improvement from 1-7 to this year's 5-3 was truly remarkable. In its first meet, the team trounced Brockton for the first time in history and ran on to wreak havoc in the strong Suburban League. The squad, with its first complete separate girl's team, was comprised mainly of younger runners, with junior, Peter Guran's 2.5 mile course record of 11:52 highlighting many outstanding individual performances. With 4 of the 5 top runners returning next season the B.H.S. cross-country team is sure to continue its ascension to dominance.

The secret of life is enjoying the passage of time
Any fool can do it
There ain't nothing to it
Nobody knows how we got to
The top of the hill
But since we're on our way down
We might as well enjoy the ride

The secret of love is in opening up your heart
It's okay to feel afraid
But don't let that stand in you way
'Cause anyone knows that love is the only road
And since we're only here for a while
Might as well show some style
Give us a smile

Isn't it a lovely ride
Sliding down
Gliding down
Try not to try too hard
It's just a lovely ride
Now the thing about time is that time
Isn't really real
It's just your point of view
How does it feel for you Einstein said he could never understand it all
Planets spinning through space
The smile upon your face
Welcome to the human race
James Taylor

DON'T STOP

If you wake up and don't want to smile,
If it takes just a little while,
Open your eyes and look at the day,
You'll see things in a different way.

Don't stop thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop, it'll soon be here,
It'll be, better than before,
Yesterday's gone, yesterdays's gone.

Why not think about times to come,
And not about the things that you've done,
If your life was bad to you,
Just think what tomorrow will do.

Don't stop, thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop, it'll soon be here,
It'll be, better than before,
Yesterday's gone, yesterday's gone.

All I want is to see you smile,
If it takes just a little while,
I know you don't believe that it's true,
I never meant any harm to you.

Don't stop, thinking about tomorrow,
Don't stop, it'll soon be here,
It'll be, better than before,
Yesterday's gone, yesterday's gone.

Don't you look back,
Don't you look back.
